Advisory Commission on Charter Schools

The State Board of Education (SBE) is seeking applications from educators, parents and community members to serve on the Advisory Commission on Charter Schools (ACCS).

The ACCS is charged with providing the SBE ongoing advice on ensuring higher student achievement within a context of sound educational programs and practices, proper financial management, and certain specific requirements of law.

We are currently seeking applications from the following groups to fill Committee vacancies:

- Charter School Representatives
- Parents/Guardians
- County Superintendents of Schools

Individuals with the following qualifications are encouraged to apply:

- Direct experience with charter schools
- Broad knowledge of public school
- Knowledge of state or federal policy matters affecting charter schools

Generally, the ACCS meets one day every other month, although additional meetings may be held as necessary based upon the members' assessment of workload in consultation with CDE staff.

Download and submit an application by 4:30 p.m. on Friday, October 3, 2008.
